Hull History Centre: Records of the Hull City Council Maternity and Child Welfare Committee

C TCMC Records of the Hull City Council Maternity 1920-1921 and Child Welfare Committee

Historical Background: The Maternity and Child Welfare Committee was appointed in October 1918. As well as including councillors, it was made up of interested parties from both within the council as well as external appointments. Like many other of the more modern committees, its powers and duties were clearly defined from its inception. It was to carry out the duties imposed upon the council under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918 and the Midwives Act 1910. It met for the last time in October 1929 after which its responsibilities were transferred to the Health and Public Assistance Committee.
