

C TMH Documents relating to the Commission of Sewers 1567

Historical Background: Commission of Sewers were usually called to investigate specific issues and Hull had problems with its sewers for many years. Gallows Clow was part of Myton

Custodial history: Certified copy held by the Town Clerk

Description: Copies from the State Papers Domestic Elizabeth Vol.43, certified by the Assistant Keeper of the Public Records, 18 Feb 1868

Extent: 1 item

Related material: For more records relating to the Commission of Sewers for Hull see under C JS/1-2. Within U DDEV are records relating to Anthony Smetherley. At the East Riding Archives under reference DDBL/14/1 are other records regarding the sewers at Gallows Clow

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C TMH/1	Documents relating to the Commission of Sewers No.33. 4 parts:- Letter from Anthony Smetherley to Sir William Cecil relating to Hull's sewers 31 Jul 1567 Letter from the mayor of Hull and others to Anthony Smetherley at Brantingham relating to Hull's sewers 27 Jun 1567 Verdict of Robert Armyn and others concerning Hull's sewers 21 Jun 1567 An estimate by Anthony Smetherley of the cost of repairing the Gallows Clow, Myton 28 Jul 1567 1 item	Jul 1567
---------	---	----------