

C WTRecords of The Charterhouse*c.1269-2017

Historical Background: A Carthusian Priory, the Maison Dieu, was founded in 1378 by Michael de la Pole with almshouses for 13 poor men and 13 poor women. In 1383 these were separated with the latter becoming the Hull Charterhouse. The Charter of 1384 established that the Master would have a dwelling near the hospital. After the dissolution of the monasteries, the governance of the Charterhouse passed to the Corporation of Hull. The advowson, or right to appoint the Master, was forfeited by his descendants and granted to Hull Corporation in 1552.

During the 18th Century the buildings rapidly deteriorated so that in 1777 the whole place was pulled down and rebuilt at a cost totalling more than £3,500. The third hospital, erected by Master Bourne, consisted of the present Master's House on the south side of the street, and the main building on the north side, which is now called the Old House. The Chapel was incorporated into the centre of this new building. The building, now called Bourne House, was added in 1804 and during the 19th Century many more blocks were added to house the increasing number of residents.

Under an order of the Charity Commission of 1901 the Charterhouse was recognised under a Board of Trustees and a clerk was appointed to the Trustees. In 1978 work began on building 18 new flats to house residents of the Charterhouse. The Chapel also had to be restored and in 1981 a Service of re-hallowing the Chapel was conducted by the then Archbishop of York.

The financial and administrative services for the Charterhouse were taken over by Messrs. Fawley Judge and Easton from the Hull City Council on 1 April 2009.

For a history of the Charterhouse see John Cook's, 'The History of God's House in Hull, commonly called the Charterhouse' and compiled in 1882 located at reference L.361.92.

C WT/5	Correspondence a) 1840 - 1901 Letters for the period 1840-1900 were gathered together in about 1900 and parcelled, for the period 1840-89 in ten-year bundles, and for 1890-8 in annual bundles. The contents of these bundles were as follows. 1840-49 One bundle of correspondence 1850-89 Each parcel contained a bundle of correspondence and a number of loose papers forming two parallel series. It is no longer clear why there should have been this separation but they have been listed separately. 1890-98 Each annual parcel contained one or two bundles of letters. There were bundles for 1890, 1891, 1893, 1894, 1895 and 1896. Labelled "Letters" and the year in red. Unlabelled bundles for 1892, 1897 and 1898 seem to belong to this series. There is a second series labelled "Correspondence" and the year in black for 1896, 1897 and 1898. Again it is not clear why there were two series. 1898-1901 One final and rather specialised bundle. The letters were variously addressed to the successive masters: Rev. T. Dikes, 1833-47, Rev. G. M. Carrick, 1847-9, Rev. J. H. Bromby, 1847-68, Rev. H. W. Kemp, 1868-88, Rev. J. T. Lewis, 1890-98, the solicitors to the Charity Messrs. Thompson and Marshall, later Thompson and Cook, later Thompson, Cook and Babington, their agents and surveyors and to the advisors Committee as a body through named members of it. For brevity the Master and solicitors are mentioned in the following list by title not name. The agents and surveyors named in the following list were Thomas Nicholson, L. B. Earnshaw and R. G. Smith. The documents have been listed in the order in which they appear in the bundles.	1832- Dec 1985

b) 1901 to date

Under the scheme of 1901 the work of routine administration was transferred from the master to the Town Clerk as clerk to the Trustees.

Subsequent correspondence is therefore his.

These letters are chiefly concerned with the routine business. This includes the selection, appointment and discipline of inmates, the appointment and remuneration of masters and the administration of property. A point mentioned several times in the 1928-30 letters is the decline of Silver St. as a shopping centre and the effects of this on Charterhouse Tenants' business. The correspondence for the 1940's is much concerned with the war, especially the bomb damage at the Charterhouse and the evacuation of the inmates, and later the post war reconstruction.
