

L DCWC Records of the Wycliffe Congregational Church, 1870-1921
Hull

Historical Background: With the expansion of the town, the Congregational Church, like other denominations decided to build places of worship in these developing suburbs. Located on Anlaby Road in Hull, and named after the English religious reformer, John Wycliffe, the Wycliffe Congregational Church opened in 1868. The church closed in 1935, and the building was demolished in January 1939.

Custodial history: Deposited with the Hull Local Studies Library

Description: Minute books and year books. Former reference L.285.8 WYC.

Extent: 3 volumes

Related material: Deeds for the Wycliffe Congregational Church are located at reference C DCUR/2. There are building plans at C TAB/OBL/M/873 and C TAB/OBL/M/4354. Other records for the church can be found at C DMM/41, C WY/6/64 and within the records of the Fish Street Congregational Church at L DCFS. There are newspaper articles in the Hull News and Hull Times covering the appointment of a new pastor (1902), the end of the church (1938) and its demolition (1939), details of which can be accessed through the library card index catalogue.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

L DCWC/1	Minutes of Church Meetings, Wycliffe Congregational Church, Hull 1 volume	Jan 1910- Sep 1918
L DCWC/2	Minutes of Deacons' meetings, Wycliffe Congregational Church, Hull 1 volume	Jan 1912- Mar 1921
L DCWC/3	Wycliffe Congregational Church, Hull year books One bound volume 1 volume	1870-1876