L DLCI Scrapbook of civic and other official invitation 1874-1906 and Christmas cards

Historical Background: The album appears to have been compiled by T. C. Reynoldson and Annie Reynoldson. Thomas Charles Reynoldson was the son of Thomas Reynoldson, the goldsmith and jeweller on Whitefriargate in Hull. He worked in the family business and was a supporter of organisations such as the Hull Seamen's and General Orphanage and the local territorial army.

Description: As well as invitations from individuals such as the Archbishop of York and various aldermen, mayors and sheriffs, the volume contains examples of official Christmas cards. Note the spine has the dates 1869-1900. Previous library reference L.9.7081.

Extent: 1 volume

Related material: For more programmes, invitation cards, notices and other miscellaneous items of various organisations in Hull and the East Riding for the years 1833-1917 please see reference C DMT/27.
