

L DLFA Art work of Frank Armstrong, of Anlaby 1954-1955

Biographical Background: Frank Armstrong (1900-1967) was a Yorkshire artist, who became a Fellow of the Royal Society for the Arts and an exhibitor at the Royal Academy. He also provided illustrations for publications such as 'The Dalesman'. 53 of his drawings appeared in their 1967 publication, 'Yorkshire Landmarks'.

Custodial history: Passed to Geoffrey Drewery, Hull's Chief Librarian, by Frank Armstrong.

Description: Photograph of panel designed by Frank Armstrong

Extent: 1 item

Related material: Hull Museums have a number of other pieces by Armstrong, as does other institutions such as the Yorkshire Dales Countryside Museum.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

L DLFA/1	Photograph of a panel designed by Frank Armstrong illustrating the presentation of a Charter to Hull in 1299. The date on the panel actually says 1293. Includes the original correspondence relating to the depositing of the photograph. Previous library reference L.9.7035. 1 item	1954- 15 Jan 1955
----------	---	----------------------