

L DLLS Research work of Louis Sherwood Selle c.1940s-1950s

Biographical Background: Louis Sherwood Selle was born in Hull in 1866, and became a writer on aspects of the language and dialect of Hull and the East Riding. A chemist by profession, he married Mabel A Martin in 1927 and died in 1963.

Description: Notes, cuttings and letters

Extent: 1/3 box

Related material: At C DEHG/10/2/1 are records from Selle as an old boy of the Hull Grammar School (1909-1926). At C DSHP/4/1 is a book presented to Selle for his 25 years service to pharmacy in the city (1940). In addition, Selle addressed members of Hull Literary Club, the relevant syllabuses can be found at C DSLIT/5.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

L DLLS/1	Exercise book of L.S. Selle containing notes and cuttings on the street names of Hull Previous library reference L.9.7 1 volume	c.1940s- 1950s
L DLLS/2	Letters from L.S. Selle to T.C. Jackson [?] on the subject of place names Previous library reference L.9.7 1 bundle	31 Oct 1944- 22 Nov 1944
L DLLS/3	Note book containing the research work of L.S. Selle on the grammar of East Yorkshire Previous library reference L.427(5) 1 item	n.d.