

U DDMC Papers relating to East Riding 13th cent.-1859 of Yorkshire collected by Sir Clive
Milnes-Coates of Helperby Hall

Historical background:

The Coates family had settled in Thornton le Beans in the parish of North Otterington in North Yorkshire by the fifteenth cent.. The grandfather of the creator of this collection was James Coates (1816-1905) of Helperby Hall, a Justice of the Peace and Deputy Lieutenant of the North Riding. His eldest son, Edward Feetham Coates (b.1853), was created baronet in 1911. He was MP for Lewisham in London 1903-21 and was a member of the stockbroking firm of Coates Son & Co. He married Edith Woolley and they had one son and one daughter. He died in 1921 and was succeeded by their son, Edward Clive Coates, 2nd baronet, and creator of this collection of historical miscellany.

Edward Clive Coates (b.1879) was educated at Charterhouse and Exeter College, Oxford. In 1906 he married Lady Celia Hermione Crewe Milnes, the 2nd daughter of the 1st Marquis of Crewe. He changed his family's name by deed poll in 1946. They had four children-Robert Edward James Clive Milnes-Coates (b.1907; m.1945 Lady Patricia Milnes-Gaskell); Bridget Sybil Milnes-Coates (b.1910); Elizabeth Hermione Milnes-Coates (b.1914) and Anthony Richard Milnes Milnes-Coates (b.1920). The younger son was killed in Normandy in 1944. The family had homes in London and Helperby Hall, North Yorkshire. Sir Edward Clive Milnes-Coates died in 1971.

Gillyatt Sumner was an antiquary who lived at No. 4 King Street, Woodmansey, in the early nineteenth cent.. This portion of his antiquarian collections presumably came into the hands of Edward Clive Milnes-Coates through purchase.

Custodial History:

Transferred from Helperby Hall, the home of Sir Clive Milnes-Coates, to the North Riding Record Office and then the East Riding Record Office. Deposited in Hull University Archives in 1974.
