

U DP199

Letter from Philip Larkin to G.G. Hough

1956

Biographical Background:

The scholar and poet, Graham Goulder Hough, was born in Lancashire in 1908. He was Professor of English, University of Cambridge, 1966–75 and Fellow of Darwin College, Cambridge, 1964–75. He was the author of The Romantic Poets and others. He died in Cambridge in 1990.

Custodial history:

Purchased from Waiting for Godot Books, Massachusetts, USA in March 1997

Extent: 1 item

Related material:

U DPL Papers of Philip Larkin
U DLN Papers of the Larkin family
Philip Larkin book collection

There are numerous other small collections of letters to/from Larkin in the University Archives

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DP199/1	Typescript letter signed. Philip Larkin (Hull) to G.G. Hough (Christ's College, Cambridge) Comments regarding review of The Less Deceived in The Listener ; comparison with Kingsley Amis as a writer. This letter was removed from a copy of 2nd edition of The Less Deceived , which is now housed in the Philip Larkin Book Collection. 1 item	23 Nov 1956
-----------	---	-------------