

U DX144

Items relating to Driffield

1857-1950s

Custodial history:

Donated by Stephen Malcolm, Department of Photography, University of Hull, 17 February 1981 [U DX144/1-2] and March 1981 [U DX144/3]

Description:

Small collection of material relating to Driffield including two newspapers (1857 and 1874) and copies of over 90 photographs and published postcards of Driffield and the local area that he owned.

Extent: 96 items

Related material:

Papers of the Sykes Family of Sledmere [Ref U DDSY]

Copyright:

Unknown in many cases although many of the photographs are clearly from postcards published by Valentine & Sons

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

| | | |
|-----------|---|-------------|
| U DX144/1 | 'The Driffield Observer'. No. 89 Includes an article on the attempted re-launch of 'The Great Eastern' 1 item | 7 Nov 1857 |
| U DX144/2 | 'The Driffield Observer' No. 960 Includes a piece relating to the marriage of Sir Tatton Sykes and Miss Cavendish Bentinck (on p4) and a seperate piece about the Sykes family. [fragile condition] 1 item | 8 Aug 1874 |
| U DX144/3 | Enlarged copies of photographs in possession of Stephen Malcolm Photographs of Driffield (60) including named buildings, mills, churches, a few aerial views, the canal, road and street views including Middle Street and the Driffield Fire Brigade; Sledmere (12) including Sledmere House, the church, cross and the funeral of Sir Tatton Sykes; Nafferton (3); Garton-on-the-Wolds (2); Kirkburn; Little Driffield; North Frodingham; Sunderlandwick; Wansford; the stone bridge in Thornton-le-Dale; people (golf, groups, theatricals generally unidentified) (11) . 94 items | 1910s-1950s |