

U DX147

Records of the East Riding
Teachers Scientific Society

1947-1954

Historical Background:

The Society was established in 1947 to promote the teaching of Natural Science in the schools of East Riding, it wound-up in December 1953.

Custodial history:

Originally deposited by Professor Ronald Good in the Institute of Education Library in 1954, and transferred to the archives in July 1981.

Description:

Small collection of records relating to the East Riding Teachers Scientific Society established to promote the teaching of Natural Science in the schools of East Riding.

Extent: 1 volume & 18 items

Related material:

Papers of Professor Ronald Good, 1929-1958 [U DX214]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX147/1	Minute Book With printed notes on the object and rules of the Society 1 volume	1947- Dec 1953
U DX147/2	Circulars Printed circulars relating to the Annual Meeting of the Society including some agendas. Also includes programme for a weekend course on 'Field Work in Schools' (1951) 11 items	1949-1953
U DX147/3	Reports of field work at Flamborough Survey of bird - life, with bibliography; Shore Group; Plant Section; Geology Group 5 items	24 May 1952
U DX147/4	Two letters concerning the deposit 2 items	24 May-26 Jun 1954