

U DX161

Teaching Certificates

1885-1919

Biographical Background:

From the records we know that Mary Jane McLoughlin was born in Hull in February 1864 and undertook teaching training at Liverpool Training College between 1884-1885. She worked in a number of schools including as Head Mistress at St Gregory's School in Hull (between 1889-1892) and Roman Catholic School in Barton-on-Humber (1900-1903).

Custodial history: Donated by Mrs Stonehouse, Hull, October 1983

Description: Collection of certificates relating to teacher training from the late 19th century

Extent: 5 items & 1 bundle

Related material:

School Exercise books, 1850-1858 [U DX326]

Records relating to Miss Frances Westerdale, Headmistress of Constable Street Primary School, 1919-1941 [Ref C DIJM]

Records of the East Riding Teachers Scientific Society, 1947-1954 [Ref U DX147]

Records of the National Association of Schoolmasters/Union of Women Teachers (NASUWT) (Hull & District Association), 1919-1978 [Ref U DSA]

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX161/1	Teachers' Certificate, Second Class, for Mary Jane McLoughlin. Certificate is dated Dec 1885, includes brief comments from Her Majesty's Inspectors, 1888-1890 1 bundle	1885-1890
U DX161/2	Mary Jane McLoughlin application form Application is for post of Head Teacher of Infants under Hull School Board and the form includes details of salaries for a range of teaching roles 1 item	c.1897
U DX161/3	Teachers' Registration Council Copy of the registration of Mary Jane McLoughlin with the Teachers' Registration Council 1 item	1 Dec 1919
U DX161/4	Royal Society of Teachers certificate Certificate is for Mary Jane Gallagher 1 item	Dec 1919
U DX161/5	Teacher's Certificate Examination Certificate recording the success of Agnes W. McLoughlin in passing the Teacher's Certificate Examination 1 item	Oct 1899
U DX161/6	Teacher's Certificate For Agnes W. McLoughlin 1 item	1 Feb 1902