

U DX193

Correspondence between Philip Larkin and Janice Rossen

1976-1985

Biographical Background:

Janice Adelle Rossen received a PhD from the University of Minnesota, and has taught at Chapman University in Orange, California, and at the University of Texas at Austin. Her publications include 'The World of Barbara Pym' (published in 1988) , 'Philip Larkin: His Life's Work' (1990); 'The University in Modern Fiction: When Power is Academic' (1993) and 'Women Writing Modern Fiction: A Passion for Ideas' (2004).

Custodial history:

Donated by Dr Janice Rossen, California, October 1989

Description:

Brief correspondence between Philip Larkin and Dr Janice Rossen at Huntingdon Library, California in particular with reference to Barbara Pym who Rossen was researching.

Extent: 7 items

Related material:

Some items of correspondence are to be found amongst the Philip Larkin material [U DPL]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX193/1

Correspondence

Includes:

- a) Photocopy of a letter from Philip Larkin to Henri Coulette, 25 Nov 1976
  - b) Five letters from Philip Larkin to Dr J. Rossen, 31 Oct 1983 - 23 May 1985
  - c) Photocopy of a letter from Dr J. Rossen to Philip Larkin, 5 Sep 1984
- 7 items

25 Nov 1976-

23 May 1985