

U DX228

Promissory Notes

c.1862-1891

Historical Background:

A promissory note is a financial instrument, in which the issuer promises to pay a designated amount of money to the payee under specific terms.

Ajmer District is an area in the state of Rajasthan in western India. The district's headquarters are based in the city of Ajmer. The district shares borders with the districts of Nagaur, Jaipur, Tonk, Bhilwara and Pali.

Custodial history:

Deposited by James Priestman, Leconfield, 2 December 1993

Description:

This small collection contains a volume of promissory notes from the Ajmer region of India.

Extent: 1 volume

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX228/1

Artificial volume. Promissory notes from the Ajmer region of India (in modern Rajasthan) (164)
1 volume

1862-1891