

U DX312

Papers relating to student life

1968-1970

Biographical background:

Fred Gray studied at the University of Hull between 1968 and 1971 before completing his PhD in Geography at Cambridge University. In 1974 he became a research fellow at Sussex University. During his tenure at Sussex University he served as the Director of the Centre for Continuing Education for over a decade, as the Dean of the Sussex Institute (2002-2009) and as the Academic Director of Local and Regional Relationships (2009-2011). He is now an Emeritus Professor of Continuing Education.

Alongside his academic career, Professor Gray is a Director of the West Pier Trust, for whom he also acts as honorary historian and archivist, and the Brighton Fishing Museum Trust. He has also served as a board member for the Brighton Dome and Festival, Varndean College Brighton and the Gardner Arts Centre.

Custodial history:

Donated to the Brynmor Jones Library in 2003 by Professor Fred Gray, and transferred to the archives in 2006.

Description:

This small collection contains various items relating to Hull University Students' Union and other student societies and activities, including copies of Hull Union Daily Information newsletters, Union agenda, copies of PIG magazine, copies of WORM magazine and several items relating to the Socialist Party of Great Britain Society.

Extent: 2 files

Related material:

Records of the Students' Union, including student newspapers [U SUH]
University official publications [U ORP]

Access Conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

Hull History Centre: Papers relating to student life

- U DX312/1 Artificial file. Items relating to Hull University Students' Union 1968-1969
Includes Hull University Union Daily Information newsletters (6 Feb [1969], 7 Feb 1969, 12 Dec [1969]); agenda for union meetings (2 May and 19 Feb 1969); typed notices of amendments to union meetings (16 Oct 1968, 7 May 1969); an advert for a union meeting; a leaflet about the union and membership (Sep 1968); circulars entitled 'The University Meeting' and 'Residence Regulations' (5 May 1969); a leaflet relating to the Clearways Campaign on Implementation of Union Policy: New Methods of Assessment (14 Oct 1968); a circular relating to Hull University's examination procedure as regards the student T.W. Fawthrop with related amendment to be put to the union general meeting (30 Oct 1968); typed note from Ents Comm relating to a change in musical entertainments; a typed 'manifesto' for Tim Poston as candidate for the position of 'Academic Thug'; a programme for the Union Ball (7 Feb 1969); a typed itinerary entitled 'Suggested Places of Interest for Visitors to Kingston upon Hull' and a copy of the Library News Sheet No. 7 (Dec 1968).
1 file
- U DX312/2 Artificial File. Items relating to Hull University student 1968-1970 societies and activities
Includes copies of PIG magazine Nos. 8 and 10; copies of WORM magazine Nos. 4, 6 and 8; leaflets advertising the meetings of the Socialist Party of Great Britain Society; leaflets relating to lectures at the Gulbenkian Centre; leaflets relating to the Palestine Solidarity Campaign, Hull; a leaflet entitled 'How to fight the National Front' by the International Socialism Society; a programme for the University Service of Nine Lessons and Carols (8 Dec 1968); tickets and programme for 'The Bathhouse' by Vladimir Mayakovsky performed at Middleton Hall; a ticket for the Geographical Society Late Term Dance (2 Dec 1968); a ticket for the Thwaite Hall Christmas Ball (7 Dec 1968); an advert for the Compton Lectureship in Poetry (6 Nov 1968); a programme for the Northern Universities Geographical Societies Conference (1969); a leaflet relating to student elections for the Sociology Department Committee; a poster advertising an event called 'Disco-Strip', and related newspaper cuttings.
1 file