

U DX313

TORCH student magazines

1951-1952

Historical Background:

TORCH was the magazine of the Students' Union of the University College of Hull.

Custodial history:

Deposited by science student James Lewis's daughter

Description:

It appears to have been issued twice a year and includes a range of articles, poems and stories.

Extent: 2 items

Related material:

Torchlight, 1958-1976 (Ref U LIB/2/221)

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

This collection has been merged with the main series of Torch, Torchlight and Hullfire magazines at U SUH/1.

U DX313/1	TORCH student magazine Vol Six No 7. Includes an editorial piece on the need for a policy for union publications; a retrospect look at 1951 and the two issues of debate: the establishment of a university air squadron and the NUS affiliation with the International Union of Students. also includes reprint of a story by Dan Billany from a 1938 edition of Torch . 1 item	Summer 1951
U DX313/2	TORCH student magazine Vol Six No 9 Includes an editorial piece on trends in social and political organisations; the Christian ethic; 'Farewell to an Alma Mater' story by Bob Green reflecting on the Senate's decision to make the College residential and the wearing of gowns being made compulsory for freshers. 1 item	Summer 1952