

U DX33

Diary of James Dunn

1804-1806

Historical Background:

Custodial history:

Donated by Ashford Dunn, 30 Oct 1945

Description:

Typescript copy of diary for James Dunn, a gentleman living at The Manor House in Patrington, covering the period 1804-1806

Extent: 1 item

Related material:

A photocopy of the typescript is also held by the Local Studies library [Ref L.630.1 (69)] and amongst the papers of historian Kenneth A MacMahon [Ref U DDMM/14/2]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX33/1

Diary of James Dunn

Typescript copy of the diary that provides a good insight into the life of a gentleman and his farm or estate at this time including details of plants, livestock and the weather with references to payments made and received. With details of servants hired (including wages) and accounts of livestock.

1 item

1 Jan 1804-
15 Feb 1806