

U DX386 Papers relating to William Hamilton Broughton 1902
and the SS Rinaldo

Accession number: 2015/35

Biographical Background: Created by William Hamilton Broughton, third engineer on board the SS Rinaldo, a liner belonging to the shipping company Wilson Lines

Custodial history: Found during Hull University Archives closure week 2015 at Hull History Centre, accompanied by a note stating the depositor details and recording that the accession was a donation (note in an unknown HUA staff hand)

Description: Contains photocopy of a diary kept by Broughton, an engineer on board the SS Rinaldo (a Wilson Line liner) and copies of press cuttings relating to the SS Rinaldo

Extent: 1 file

Related material: Records of Ellerman's Wilson Line [U DEW]

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

Copyright: Hull University Archives

Language: English

U DX386/1	Diary of William Hamilton Broughton Photocopy. Personal diary of Broughton's life on board a Wilson Line liner, the SS Rinaldo, in 1902 recounting experiences including an accident which was reported in the Hull Daily Mail on 3 March 1902. Note that Broughton was third engineer (shown in a crew list within the diary which also shows his brother in the list), and an inscription in the diary shows him to be resident at 6 Stainton Avenue, Grimsby. Enclosed are two pages of photocopied press cuttings relating to the SS Rinaldo, including the HDM report of the 1902 accident. 1 file	27 Feb 1902- 28 Mar 1902
-----------	---	-----------------------------