

U DX7

Library catalogue of A.E. Trout

1933

Biographical Background:

Archibald Ernest Trout was born in 1880 and died, aged 82, in 1962. He married Florence Helen Dixon in 1901 and was described as an Account Collector in the 1911 census. He wrote several articles and short books as well as compiled notes on various subjects including Hull Methodism, inns and taverns of Hull and poor relief in Hull.

Custodial history:

Donated by A.E Trout, Church Street, South Cave, 8 May 1933

Description:

This small collection contains a handwritten catalogue of the books, pamphlets and other manuscripts held in the library of A.E. Trout.

Extent: 1 item

Related material:

'Nonconformity in Hull' by A.E. Trout [U DDMM/9/25]

South Cave notes by A.E. Trout [L 9.592 CA]

An old Yorkshire congregation: South Cave Congregational Church by A.E. Trout [L 285.8 (592) CA]

List of the material submitted by A.E. Trout to the Central Reference Library [L 018.2 (592) CA]

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX7/1	Notebook entitled 'Catalogue of books, pamphlets, documents, manuscripts etc. in the library of A.E. Trout' Contains handwritten entries divided by category. Details of the items listed include: title, author, date, where published, [publisher] and any further notes. Includes a letter to a Mr Bing, to whom a copy of the catalogue was sent. 1 item	1933
---------	--	------